Dear Mr Berg,

We acknowledge receipt of your email.

We have not appointed US counsel in the matter yet, however, if you agree, I am happy to have a preliminary discussion with you on this matter to see if we can reach any non-adversarial consensus on this.

I would also appreciate if you could send me the hyperlinks of MMT where the allegedly infringing photos are displayed and/or a copy of the copyrighted photographs, so that we may evaluate this in advance of our call.

Regards,

External Email

Dear Mr. Mehra,

We represent Plaintiff The Wave Studio, LLC in a newly filed copyright action against Makemytrip.com in the Southern District of New York. The case number is 7:23-cv-03586-NSR.

We are seeking a temporary restraining order against your company, as attached here, for ongoing infringement of Wave's copyrights in connection with your company's promotion of various hotels (for whom Wave worked) on your websites. Please note that the exhibits to this filing were too voluminous to be attached and sent via email.

The Judge has directed us to give Makemytrip.com notice of our motion. It is our preference to speak with your US-based counsel. If you are represented by counsel in the United States, please advise them to call me immediately at the below contact information so that we may meet and confer with them on this matter immediately. If it is your intention to proceed without US counsel, please call me to discuss this matter.

Thank you,

Gabriel Berg
